

dott.franchini.mario@gmail.com

Mario Franchini is one of the leading Italian experts in day surgery and outpatient office procedure including hysteroscopic tissue removal system for polyps and fibroids, endometrial resection and hysteroscopic female sterilization.

Member of editorial board for “Practical guideline in office hysteroscopy” produced on behalf of Italian Society of Gynecological Endoscopy (SEGI).

He is actively involved with the training of medical students and junior doctors with an interest in hysteroscopic procedures.

His actual appointment includes position as scientific advisor at Demetra IVF Center, Villa Cherubini, Florence, Italy